Jen has created a survey for the learner audience (staff with BBBS) that will be presented to the group during her introduction on February 24th. Jen was receptive to feedback and made multiple edits to hone the survey plan. This will be used for a staff training in April.

Jen has had several conversations with me to identify recruitment needs in MatSu and brainstorm potential partnerships with organizations, corporations, and other non-profits as a means to expand program reach, increase awareness, and create opportunities for presentations and partnerships. Jen is also helping identifying ways to present information about our agency to organizations whose values and audience may differ from ours. Namely, translating a very DEI friendly agency's message into something more digestible for a very conservative audience.

Jen has read and understands the recruitment process and application and has distributed recruitment materials to various businesses.

Jen is presently assisting in creating a defined plan to increase recruitment strategies and donations as we move towards our largest fundraising campaign of the year in April.
